My dear "Stew":-

I hope you have signed up for the return to Princeton for our 15th. reunion, June 13, 14, 15., and that you can afford the initial payment of $15 toward expenses of the committee. In reading over a list of those who had not signed up, I picked your name for an additional dig.

I had a conversation with Manning Barr, and he makes it very clear to me that no assessment is intended. It is just an approximation based upon the assumption that 200 members of the Class will return. The total expenses of the reunion will be around $9000. It is not expected that those who cannot afford the full assessment, should even think that it is expected of them.

I am also assured that no money given for the reunion will be used for liquor, so that the $45 will all be spent on legitimate expenses of the reunion.

Yours cordially,

James C. Healey

My dear Dr. Robinson,

A short note, just to say that plans for my ordination and installation are rounding into shape somewhat along the line that we talked about when I saw you last.

The service will be held on the evening of Friday, May the second, as planned. I am going to ask you to give the charge to the pastor, if that is agreeable to you.

There is little of news from here. Things are just about the same each week. My services yesterday were surprisingly well attended, as we drew a number of the Methodists, whose church was closed for the day because of Conference meeting.

Please remember me to Mrs. Robinson.

Very sincerely,

OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U. S. A.

156 FIFTH AVENUE
NEW YORK

OFFICE OF SECRETARY

April 10, 1930.

Dear Friends:

There is a rare opportunity available for a limited number of our ministers to secure a set of the eight volume report of the meeting of the International Missionary Council in Jerusalem at a greatly reduced price.

This is one of the most notable sets of volumes dealing with the problems of Christianity in the modern world which has ever been published. The first volume is the freshest and best book available on the question of Christianity and the non-Christian religions and secularism. The second volume is one of the best treatments of religious education. The other volumes deal with other vital topics, such as, race, industrialism, Church relationships, rural problems, etc.

The original price was $7.00. The eight volumes can now be secured by a limited number for $4.85, postage paid.

If you desire to secure a set please send check or post office money order for $4.85 to Dr. A. L. Warnshuis, 419 Fourth Avenue, New York City. This offer is available only to a few of our Presbyterian ministers. Please state plainly in writing to Dr. Warnshuis that you are doing so in accordance with the offer of this letter.

A very full and interesting index of "Preaching and Teaching Materials" in the eight volumes has been prepared and can be secured for twenty-five cents additional, making $5.10 in all if you desire both the eight volumes and this special Index.

There is a wealth of material in these attractive books both for missionary discussions and for the general study of religious and social and racial conditions throughout the world in this changing time, and they see and proclaim Christ as the one hope of man.

Trusting that you will wish to secure and use these volumes and with kind regard, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Friend,

Many thanks for your letter of April 16th, and for the very delightful photograph. We are all so glad to have it.

Thank you too for what you say about my contribution to the "Presbyterian". I hope it may be of some value. It is a great joy to me to be able to do even this small thing to help your Father in what I believe is going to be a most valuable work in connection with that paper.

I have not yet seen Harries since he was in Delhi, but Mrs Morgan tells me that he enjoyed his visit. Personally I think he would enjoy work there; and all things considered, in my judgment it is the very kind of place for him for a few years at any rate.

I am so sorry you missed Frank in New York. He also would like to have met you. Yes, I saw the bit in the "British Weekly" from the Bishop of Barking. I knew he was very interested in my last visit to London.

It is good to know that you two are thinking of running over here; but for heaven's sake don't come one of the days I am away, those days being Tuesday, Wednesday, and mostly Thursday.

With love to all of you.

Ever yours,

Frederick Morgan.

Dear "Stew":

I blush to think it is your letter of February 19th which I am to answer. How time does fly! It is a perfectly corking letter which you wrote and I should have answered it long since.

Yes, I shall send you a photograph; but only on the condition that you reciprocate. I was very much interested in the group which was published in the "Artery" but I prefer to have one of you alone to hang in the "Rogues' Gallery" in the den amongst the "elite".

Congratulations on your noble family! They are certainly a splendid looking lot and I am sure provide you with all kinds of unusual interests.

Yes, Stew., the Class is certainly developing and expanding in most all directions. We have had a unique season this year, transcending even the old "pipe dreams in the old den."

The new Metropolitan Church is a magnificent piece of architectural design. The galleries have been removed, transepts added, and the ceiling raised. The chancel is a most extraordinary bit of carving - beautiful to the extreme. We feel more than fortunate to be ensconced in such a magnificent place. It has added tone to our Services which was unobtainable in our previous quarters. We have one more Sunday here and then our closing Service we hold again in Massey Hall, which should be a bit of a "bang up" party.

You will be interested to hear that I went over to Lockport last evening and had a perfectly corking time, with the Rogers, in the main, and a little official business on the side by speaking at the Annual Dinner of John Symes' Class, which evidently is a jolly fine class and presided over by a magnificent specimen of a man. It was great even to be in Lockport again, but, of course, I missed you terribly.

Your successor, Dr. Jenney, is a character. He is a most extraordinary person, isn't he? I think it was Bert Rogers who said he was very much unlike you - highly intellectual!?! Some of his stories at the banquet were pretty good.

It is great about Anne's going to Europe, and also to hear of your being in England. If you have any difficulty getting passage, be sure to let me know. These things seem to be comparatively easy of arrangement if one goes at them through certain channels.

I hope you have met the Shephards by this time - the long "Dave" and the short "Kay". They are a priceless pair and certainly worthwhile.

It is splendid to hear such good reports of your work in Elizabeth, which filter back through unofficial channels.

In the meantime, with all the best to you and your family,

As ever,

P.S. Our own flock is developing rapidly. You wouldn't know them.

My dear Mr. Robinson:

I have your letter of April 28th asking permission to secure a stenographer and take my address on Wednesday on the 28th of May. I have no objections whatever. In fact, I could give, at the time, most of the address in print as it was given in Cairo before a group of students. I will bring that Cairo paper with me.

My dear Mr. Robinson,

No doubt you will be surprised to see the heading of this letter. We started for Arizona the 17th of February and got in Tucson the 3rd of March. I got a position at the Desert Sanitarium there and was there just 10 days when I recieved a telegram from my brother saying he was going to Niagara Falls to get my sister & bring her to his home. She was ill & the doctors gave her only a few months to live. She wanted me to come home so I started back alone and got here the 1st of April. Last Friday she died from cerebral hemorrhage. She was taken with a severe pain in her head & became unconscious and lived only an hour. She was only 36 years old and aetho' we knew she could not live when Pat went for her it came as quite shock to us all.

I have since been thinking of the hospital there in Elizabeth and how the Supt. there told me to look him up when I was ready for a position. Arizona seems to bring me only bad luck so I guess I will stay east for a while. It was only six months ago that we buried my father you know.

Would you see the supt. of the hospital there and see if there is still an opening? I can't remember his name. If he would like me to I will come up and see him. One brother is here in Phila. and the other in Harrisburg so I would like to be near them.

Is Mrs. Robinson still planning to go to Europe? It will certainly be lovely for her if she can.

I am anxious to make some definite plans so would appreciate it a lot if you can find out how the land lies for me.

Best regards to all your family.

Sincerely,

Lena M. Davidson
